GREEN PELICAN AWARDS PRESS RELEASE AND INVITATION

Mayor Todd Kellstrom today announced the City of Klamath Falls is requesting nominations for the City's first ever annual "Green Pelican Awards" in recognition of local residents, businesses and community organizations making efforts to "Go Green", working towards urban sustainability or promoting natural resource conservation. The time is right to reward local innovative ideas and projects that help the environment and improve overall energy efficiency.

Six Green Pelicans will be awarded: two for residential, two for businesses and two for community organizations. The deadline for nominations is August 15, 2009 and there is no entry fee but projects or programs must be located within the City limits. Nominations may be submitted by anyone and can be submitted online at www.ci.klamath-falls.or.us, by e-mail to kfitts@ci.klamath-falls.or.us or by regular mail to:
